- CHÂTEAU PEYMOUTON ____ Grand Cru (St. Emilion, Bordeaux) € 54.00
Very good wine, elegant and robust. Strong fruit and medium to full bodied with a very nice composition.
- CHÂTEAU LAROQUE ____ Grand Cru (St. Emilion, Bordeaux) € 72.00
Top-class Saint-Émilion from an up-and-coming château. Superb concentration of rich, fragrant fruit. 87% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Franc, 2% Cabernet Sauvignon. Lower yield and harvesting by hand improve the quality. Decant and serve with roasts, game or full-flavoured cheeses.
- CHÂTEAU PYE BLANQUET ____ Grand Cru (St. Emilion, Bordeaux) € 72.00
Whereas the Médoc is a land of gently rolling hills where an incline that climbs a mere 20 metres affords you a vantage point over much of the surrounding countryside, in the east of the St Emilion appellation, where the town lies, there is a more imposing escarpment, with vineyards on the slopes and plateau where the soils are rich in limestone, with some areas of clay on the slopes.
- CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC ____ Premiere Grand Cru (St. Emilion, Bordeaux) € 820.00
The nose shows great aromatic complexity, with primary fruit aromas of sloe, plum and damson complemented by secondary levels of tobacco leaf, sandalwood, smoky tar, menthol and spice. The palate is smooth and concentrated with a fine seam of minerality that lifts the considerable structure and lends great elegance.
- CLOS L'ÉGLISE ____ (Pomerol, Bordeaux) € 230.00
it was a pleasure to share this bottle with friends, one of these bottles a bit forgotten in the cellar that we are happy to see empty enthusiastically.
- CHÂTEAU DE BEL-AIR ____ (Pomerol, Bordeaux) € 62.00
This wine has 66% Merlot and 34% Cabernet Franc although there is also a little Cabernet Sauvignon planted here. Between three and four weeks maceration. A dense colour. Roasted nuts and dark fruits on the nose. Great density when tasted, appealing concentration, and still has plenty of tannic structure at present.
- CHINON A.O.C. ____ Les Morinitieres (Loire) € 22.00
Cabernet Franc grown on the stony terraces of the area tends to be a young wine with dominant notes of blackcurrant and anise. The wines from the steeper rockier areas along the hills the separate the Loire from the Vienne tend to produce wines that are more tannic.
- 'LE BOISCLAIRE' SAUMUR CHAMPIGHY A.O.C. ____ Maison Joseph Mallot (Loire) € 22.00
A fruity red wine with good structure. Made from grapes grown in our own vineyards. From harvest to bottling, the wine-making process is therefore guaranteed our fullest care in line with our traditions.

TIFFANY VERY FINE COLLECTION

VIEU-CHÂTEAU-CERTAN ____ Pomerol (Bordeaux, France)

This delightful Bordeaux red wine from the outstanding 1936 vintage is harmonious and silky with a cedary bouquet and a lovely finish.

PAUILLAC PREMIER CRU CLASSE ____ Mouton Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

This wine is considered akin to a legend to all wine experts, as it is one of the finest Pauillacs of the 20th century.

PAUILLAC PREMIER CRU CLASSE ____ Mouton Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

Without any doubt the famous Bordeaux wine – and not without reason, as it was classified as « Premier des Premiers » Crus (=first of the first) in the 1855 classification. Château Lafite is one of the three unquestioned tops of Pauillac, with Latour and Mouton-Rothschild.

PAUILLAC PREMIER CRU CLASSE ____ Mouton Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

A deep and very dense colour, violet shading almost to black. The nose opens on toast and roasted coffee, then with airing reveals floral aromas of violet and lilac, moving on to blackcurrant, blackberry and black cherry. Very harmonious on the palate, it strikes a perfect balance between well-structured tannins, succulent yet firm, and a rush of flavours in which vanilla, spice and a touch of pepper mingle with blackcurrant and fresh red fruit. The long finish, candid and generous, reveals a powerful, full-bodied and highly expressive Pauillac.

PAUILLAC PREMIER CRU CLASSE ____ Mouton Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

Opaque coloured wine, driven by a clean richness of fruits. Concentration is a keep factor here, but in a control manner. Long, powerful yet very gentle.

PAUILLAC PREMIER CRU CLASSE ____ Mouton Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

Château Mouton Rothschild 2004 is the ideal of a generous and full Pauillac. Faithful to itself, it has character and grace and after a few years of ageing will be even more graceful.

ST. EMILION NEGOTIANT ____ Emil Hierf (Bordeaux, France)

Exhibits a sweet black truffle aroma with decent fruit. It is elegant expansive and ripe with outstanding balance and richness and length.

CHÂTEAU MOUTON BARON PHILIPPE _____ (Bordeaux, France)

The blending was rigorous, the proportions classic. Cabernet France, particularly successful this year, was integrated. The wine is very harmonious with preserved fruits: blackcurrant and morello cherry.

CHÂTEAU LAGRANGE ST.JULIEN _____ Magnum (Bordeaux, France)

A deep red/black colour, this is a huge wine. Reticent in the nose, it is very concentrated on the palate with tight blackcurrant fruit and cedary, mineralic complexity. Needs a lot of time, but very good/excellent

CHÂTEAU LAFITE _____ Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

Beautiful aroma and taste of minerals and earth ...a classic pauillac yet there's something a little st julien about it ... very nice slightly chewy finish. Tannins can soften more but already its very rounded with hardly any rough edges.

CHÂTEAU LAFITE _____ Rothschild (Bordeaux, France)

Deep and concentrated - and still introvert but it opened out to great delicacy. Pure Lafite with extra ripeness of 2003 and a little spike of leafiness on the edge to keep it lively. Round and opulent on the mid palate but never heavy.

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC ST.EMILION _____ (Bordeaux, France)

Intense aromas of tar, blackberry and wet earth, with just a hint of tobacco and flowers. Full-bodied, chewy and long. Extracted, yet turns caressing and velvety in texture. Broad-shouldered and muscular for this estate.

CHÂTEAU HAUT BRION PREMIER CRU CLASSE PESSAC LEOGNAN _____

Château Haut Brion (Bordeaux, France)

From an almost opaque colour to an intense yet very delicate nose. A dominant tannic structure gives this wine a definite edge. The future will be full of great surprises.
